Attached is a copy of the statute regarding the withholding of licenses and permits of delinquent taxpayers. This was given to you previously but this is a follow up to refresh your memory.

The salient points of this law are: any board, agency or department may deny, revoke or suspend any license or permit of a tax delinquent tax must be delinquent for not less than 12 months and taxpayer has not filed for abatement or appellate tax board hearing must give taxpayer a hearing and must notify in writing taxpayer is allowed to enter a payment agreement but license or permit is conditional upon agreement being kept city council may waive denial of license if they find no direct or indirect interest between person seeking license and the property owner Bill Clancy issues monthly delinquency lists so if you are not getting a list and you want one give Bill a call.
